MODEL PATENT INFRINGEMENT INDEMNITY INSURANCE POLICY
(Monoline Model Policy)

In consideration of the payment of the premium and in reliance on the application and underwriting information provided by the Insured, on the statements made in the Declarations, and subject to the Retention, Limits of Indemnity, Coinsurance Percentage, and the terms and conditions contained in this Patent Infringement Indemnity Insurance Policy (hereinafter “this Policy”), SR International Business Insurance Co. Ltd (hereinafter “SRI”) and the Insured agree as follows:

1. INSURING AGREEMENTS
   a. INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR DAMAGES
      This Policy shall reimburse the Insured for Damages:
      (1) which the Insured shall become legally obligated to pay and shall have paid resulting from any Claim first made against the Insured and reported in writing to SRI during the Policy Period or, if applicable, the Extended Reporting Period;
      (2) provided such Claim is for Covered Infringement caused by the manufacture, use, importation, distribution, advertising, offer for sale or sale of a Covered Product, committed by any Insured, and occurring on or after the Retroactive date and before the end of the Policy Period;

      but in no event shall this Policy reimburse the Insured for Damages for Patent Infringement that occurs before the Retroactive Date or after the end of the Policy Period.

   b. DEFENSE EXPENSES (INCLUDED IN THE LIMITS OF INDEMNITY)
      This Policy shall reimburse the Insured for sums which the Insured shall have incurred and paid as Defense Expenses:
      (1) with respect to a Claim seeking Damages reimbursable under Insuring Agreement 1.a. above; or
      (2) with respect to an Injunction Claim first made against the Insured and reported in writing to SRI during the Policy Period or, if applicable, the Extended Reporting Period, for alleged Patent Infringement first commencing before the end of the Policy Period.

      All sums reimbursed as Defense Expenses shall erode and not be in addition to the amount of the Limits of Indemnity.

      SRI shall have no obligation to reimburse the Insured for Defense Expenses prior to the Final Disposition of any Claim or Injunction Claim. SRI shall have no obligation to reimburse the Insured for Defense Expenses after the then remaining applicable Limits of Indemnity has been exhausted.

      The Insured shall give SRI full access to all information relevant to, and SRI shall have the right to participate in, any legal proceedings and settlement discussions relating to any Claim or Injunction Claim that appears reasonably likely to involve this Policy.

      The Insured shall not admit liability for or settle any Claim, stipulate to any judgment or incur any Defense Expenses likely to involve this Policy without SRI’s prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. SRI shall have no obligation under this Policy for any liability so admitted, judgments stipulated to, or sums incurred in settlement of any Claim or payment of Defense Expenses made without such written consent.

   c. DECLARATORY RELIEF ACTION EXPENSES (INCLUDED IN THE LIMITS OF INDEMNITY)
      In the event of a reasonable apprehension of an imminent suit against the Insured alleging Patent Infringement caused by a Covered Product which if true would be Covered Infringement for which coverage is afforded under this policy, SRI or the Insured, each only with the consent of the other, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, shall have the right but not the duty to initiate on behalf and in the name of the Insured a declaratory relief action respecting some or all of the rights alleged to have been or be infringed by the Insured, provided, however, that no such action shall be commenced without a prior written opinion of patent counsel advising that the expected suit would be based, in whole or in substantial part, on a patent that is invalid, unenforceable, or not infringed by the Insured and, provided further that the Insured and SRI agree that the commencement of such an action is a reasonable and prudent strategic option in the pre-emptive defense of an imminent and reasonably expected suit against the Insured. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Insured shall initiate such declaratory relief action without the consent of SRI, then any patent infringement Claim or Injunction Claim that the patentholder files in response to such declaratory relief action shall be deemed not to be for a Covered Infringement.

2. DEFINITIONS

a. Claim means a demand for Damages, whether or not made together with, as part of, or in addition to an Injunction Claim; Claim also means a declaratory relief action, provided the declaratory relief action is initiated by SRI or the Insured pursuant to Insuring Agreement 1.c. above.

b. Coinsurance Percentage shall have meaning as that term is used in the Section of this Policy entitled “Coinsurance”.

c. Covered Infringement means any Patent Infringement caused by the manufacture, use, importation, distribution, advertising, offer for sale or sale of a Covered Product, provided, however, that no Patent Infringement shall be Covered Infringement

(1) if a reasonably prudent patent attorney familiar with the type of business in which the Insured is engaged would recommend that the Insured conduct an Infringement Search and Infringement Safeguarding prior to the first manufacture, use, importation, distribution, advertising, offer for sale or sale of a Covered Product and the Insured did not do so; or

(2) if, after the first manufacture, use, importation, distribution, advertising, offer for sale or sale of a Covered Product, and before a Claim or Injunction Claim is first made, the Insured learns of facts which would cause a reasonably prudent patent lawyer familiar with the type of business in which the Insured is engaged to recommend that the Insured conduct Infringement Safeguarding, and the Insured did not promptly do so.

Regardless of when, during the Policy Period, a Claim or Injunction Claim is made, any Covered Infringement which is the subject of a Claim or Injunction Claim involving the Insured and the same patent and Covered Product as any other Covered Infringement(s) shall be considered as a single Covered Infringement.

d. Covered Product means:

(1) any product manufactured, used, imported, distributed, advertised, offered for sale or sold; or

(2) any process used, imported, distributed, advertised, offered for sale or sold by the Insured on or before the Inception date of the Policy Period and which are described or otherwise documented in the application attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Additional products or processes first manufactured, used, imported, distributed, advertised, offered for sale or sold after the Inception date of this Policy will be Covered Products upon approval by SRI and payment of additional premium, if any, required by SRI relating to such new product or process. The Insured shall provide notice of any such product or process it requests to be included as a Covered Product under this policy, along with a description of any Infringement Search or Infringement Safeguarding which the Insured undertook in connection with such new product or process, and shall afford SRI an opportunity to evaluate such new product or process.
e. Damages means monetary sums paid to a claimant pursuant to either judgments or settlements negotiated with the written consent of SRI, whichever is applicable, as and only as:

1. damages for Patent Infringement in the form of past lost profits and/or past reasonable royalties, which Patent Infringement shall have occurred on or after the Retroactive date and before either (a) the end of the Policy Period or (b) before the date of the judgment, whichever is earlier;

2. reasonable attorneys fees assessed by the court against the Insured and incurred by the claimant after the Retroactive date and prior to the end of the Policy Period provided that Damages shall not include fines, penalties, punitive, exemplary, enhanced or multiplied damages, non-pecuniary relief and taxes, or any amount for which the Insured is not financially liable or any amount as to which there is no legal recourse by the person who is awarded such relief against the Insured, or any such matters which are uninsurable under the law pursuant to which this Policy shall be construed.

For Patent Infringement occurring partly within the Policy Period and partly after the end of the Policy Period, and/or prior to the Retroactive date, only the portion of such sums attributable to lost profits and/or reasonable royalties for Patent Infringement occurring after the Retroactive date and before the end of the Policy Period shall be considered Damages.

f. Declarations shall refer to the document attached to this Policy and entitled “DECLARATIONS - Patent Infringement Indemnity Insurance Policy between SR International Business Insurance Co. Ltd. and the Named Insured.”

g. Defense Expense(s) means:

1. reasonable expenses incurred by the Insured in defense of a Claim or Injunction Claim based on allegations of Covered Infringement to which this Policy applies, other than loss of earnings, expenses and costs incurred by the Insured for salaries and expenses of its officers, staff, in-house attorneys, directors, employees, and of outside attorneys or consultants who function in the capacity of any of the foregoing, and rent or other necessary operating costs of the Insured;

2. expenses incurred by SRI in any Claim or Injunction Claim;

3. costs levied against the Insured in any Claim or Injunction Claim;

4. interest on the entire amount of any judgment against the Insured which interest accrues after entry of the judgment and before SRI has paid or tendered or deposited in court that part of the judgment that does not exceed SRI’s then remaining applicable Limits of Indemnity; and

5. premiums on appeal bonds and bonds to release attachments, to the extent that the face amount of such bonds do not exceed SRI’s then remaining applicable Limits of Indemnity and are required in any Claim defended by SRI, provided, however, neither this provision nor any other in this Policy shall be construed as requiring SRI to commence or prosecute any appeal or to apply for or furnish such bonds.

h. Extended Reporting Period shall have meaning as that term is used in the Section of this Policy entitled “Extended Reporting Period”.

i. Final Disposition means the resolution, whether by settlement, judgment or otherwise, of a Claim or Injunction Claim against the Insured, which is not subject to further amendment, modification, reversal or vacation, all times for appeal having run and all options and opportunities to modify having been fully and irrevocably exhausted, expired or validly terminated.

j. Infringement Search means the careful review by a patent attorney or patent agent to determine whether or not the manufacture, use, importation, distribution, advertising, offering for sale or sale of a Covered Product that the Insured is about to first manufacture, use, import, distribute, advertise, offer for sale, or sell would result in Patent Infringement.

k. Infringement Safeguarding means concluding in good faith, by means of a written opinion prepared by a patent attorney retained or employed by the Insured, that the Insured’s intended manufacture, use, importation, distribution, advertisement, offer for sale or sale of the Covered Product:

1. will not result in Patent Infringement, or would result in Patent Infringement but for the fact that said patent attorney found to be invalid the patents(s) that would be infringed; or

(3) would result in Patent Infringement and the Insured either:

(a) designs around the Patent Infringement so as to avoid Patent Infringement; or

(b) purchases sufficient rights to the infringed patent through license, cross-license or assignment, so as to avoid Patent Infringement, and concludes in good faith, by means of a written opinion prepared by patent attorney retained or employed by the Insured, that the Insured’s action pursuant to this sub-paragraph 2.k.(3) is sufficient such that the subsequent manufacture, use, importation, distribution, advertisement, offering for sale or sale by the Insured of the Covered Product will not result in Patent Infringement.

Copies of all opinion letters and other documentation prepared by the Insured’s patent attorneys or agents verifying the performance of Infringement Searches and Infringement Safeguarding shall be maintained permanently on file by the Insured and the Insured shall provide such opinion letters or documentation to SRI upon request.

Injunction Claim means a demand that the Insured limit or cease the manufacture, use, importation, distribution, advertising, offering for sale or sale of a Covered Product based on an allegation that such acts would result in Patent Infringement which if true would be Covered Infringement under this Policy.

Insured means the entity listed as the Named Insured in the Declarations and any Subsidiary Companies which were Insureds at the time that a Covered Infringement was committed or alleged to have been committed upon which the Claim(s) or Injunction Claim(s) are based.

Limits of Indemnity means the amounts indicated in Item 4 of the Declarations as the per Claim and Aggregate amounts of indemnity available under this Policy for Damages and Defense Expense for Covered Infringement, which are applicable as provided in the Section of this Policy entitled “Limits of Indemnity”.

Policy Period means the period of one year beginning on the Inception date shown in the applicable Declarations and ending on the earlier of the Expiration date shown in such Declarations or on the effective date of cancellation of this Policy.

Retention shall have meaning as that term is used in the Section of this Policy entitled “Retention”.

Retroactive date means the date indicated as such in the Declarations.

Subsidiary Company means a corporation of which the Named Insured on or before the Inception date directly or indirectly owns or, subject to SRI’s decision to extend coverage to a new Subsidiary Company as provided herein, during the Policy Period acquires, greater than 50% of the outstanding and issued voting common stock.

4. LIMITS OF INDEMNITY

a. Regardless of the number of Insureds, Claims, Injunction Claims or claimants, and subject to the Section of this Policy entitled Coinsurance, the Limit of Indemnity stated in Item 4 of the Declarations as applicable “per Claim” is the total liability of SRI for all amounts payable hereunder in satisfaction of judgments, settlements, and Defense Expense arising out of the same or related patent, Covered Product or Covered Infringement. If additional Claims or Injunction Claims are subsequently made which arise out of the same or related patent, Covered Product or Covered Infringement as any Claim or Injunction Claim that already has been made and reported to SRI, all such Claims or Injunction Claims whenever reported shall be considered first made within the applicable Policy Period or the Extended Reporting Period (if applicable) in which the earliest Claim or Injunction Claim arising out of such patent, Covered Product or Covered Infringement was first made and reported to SRI and all such Claims and Injunction Claims collectively shall be subject to one such “per Claim” Limit of Indemnity for all such Claims and Injunction Claims combined.

b. Regardless of the number of Insureds, Claims, Injunction Claims or claimants, and subject to the Section of this Policy entitled Coinsurance, the total liability of SRI for all amounts payable hereunder in satisfaction of judgments, settlements, and Defense Expense shall not exceed the Limit of Indemnity stated in Item 4 of the Declarations as “Aggregate”.

c. Defense Expense paid or reimbursable by SRI, as well as amounts paid by SRI in satisfaction of judgments, and settlements, are subject to the applicable Limits of Indemnity in Item 4 of the Declarations.

d. If two or more polices of insurance of any class and issued by SRI or by any other member company of Swiss Re Group covering any Insured(s), as defined in this Policy, is/are held to apply to and provide any coverage whatsoever for any Claim(s) or Injunction Claim(s) in connection with the same Covered Infringement for which the Insured(s) is/are jointly or severally liable, then SRI shall not be liable under this Policy for a greater proportion of such loss than the applicable Limits of Indemnity under this Policy bears to the total of the applicable limits of indemnity or liability under all such applicable policies; however, the total amount payable under all such policies held to provide coverage for such Claim(s) or Injunction Claim(s) shall not exceed the highest applicable then remaining limit of indemnity or liability payable under any one policy.

5. RETENTION

The Insured hereby warrants that the amount of the Retention shall be borne by the Insured at its own risk and shall remain uninsured.

The Retention shall apply to each and every Claim or Injunction Claim. Any amount of Damages or equivalent values recovered by or agreed to be transferred to the Insured pursuant to indemnification agreements shall not erode the Retention. Claims or Injunction Claims arising out of the same Covered Infringement shall be subject to only one Retention.

SRI shall be liable only for those amounts payable hereunder in satisfaction of judgments, settlements, or Defense Expense which are in excess of the applicable Insured’s Retention. The amount of the Insured’s Retention is indicated in the Declarations.

6. COINSURANCE

The Insured hereby warrants that the Coinsurance Percentage indicated in the Declarations is to be borne by the Insured at its own risk and shall remain uninsured.

The Insured shall be liable to pay the Coinsurance Percentage of Damages, and Defense Expense indicated in the Declarations in excess of the amount of the Insured’s Retention, which Coinsurance Percentage is part of and not in addition to the Limits of Indemnity.

SRI (only to the extent that the Insured is not a Co-Insurer) shall be liable to pay the remaining percentage of Damages, and Defense Expense in excess of the Insured’s Retention amount until the Limits of Indemnity are exhausted.

7. EXTENDED REPORTING PERIOD

a. If the SRI cancels this Policy for any reason other than non-payment of premium or refuses to renew it, or if the Named Insured cancels or refuses to renew this Policy, the Named Insured shall have the right, as set forth in 7.b below, to an Extended Reporting Period in which to give written notice to SRI of Claims first made against the Insured during such Extended Reporting Period for any alleged Patent Infringement on or after the Retroactive Date and before the end of the Policy Period and otherwise covered by this Policy.

b. If the Named Insured makes a written request to SRI and pays the additional premium for an Extended Reporting Period Endorsement within thirty (30) days after the end of the Policy Period, the Extended Reporting Period will be twelve (12) months from the effective date of cancellation or nonrenewal. The additional premium shall be 125% of the whole annual premium for this Policy, and shall be fully earned upon the effective date of the Endorsement. The Extended Reporting Period Endorsement shall not be canceled.

8. CONDITIONS

a. POLICY TERRITORY

This Policy applies to any Covered Infringement committed anywhere in the world but only if the Claim or Injunction Claim is made and the action brought in and judgment entered and enforced exclusively by a court or appropriate administrative tribunal of the country in which the Covered Infringement was committed.

b. INSURED’S DUTY TO MAINTAIN QUALITY OF INFRINGEMENT SEARCH PRACTICES

It shall be a condition precedent to any Patent Infringement being deemed a Covered Infringement under this Policy that the Insured shall not, at any time during the Policy Period, diminish the quality of its company Infringement Search practices and shall at all times maintain, as though it were not insured, the same Infringement Search standards as were in effect prior to the inception of this Policy.

c. COVERAGE FOR NEW SUBSIDIARY COMPANIES

As a condition precedent to coverage being afforded under this Policy as respects any corporation which during the Policy Period becomes a Subsidiary Company, the Named Insured shall first give notice to SRI of such new Subsidiary Company within sixty (60) days after such corporation becomes a Subsidiary Company and afford SRI an opportunity to evaluate the risk posed by such new Subsidiary Company and to make a decision concerning whether SRI wants to extend coverage for such new Subsidiary Company and, if so, the additional premium to be charged therefor. Coverage for the new Subsidiary Company is conditioned upon the Insured paying when due any additional premium required by SRI relating to such new Subsidiary Company.
d. NOTICE/CLAIM REPORTING PROVISIONS

Notice hereunder shall be given in writing to SR International Business Insurance Company, Ltd., Contact Office, P.O. Box 4288, CH-8022 Zurich, Switzerland. If mailed, the date of mailing of such notice shall constitute the date that such notice was given and proof of mailing shall be sufficient proof of notice.

(1) The Insured shall, as a condition precedent to the availability of the rights provided under this Policy, give written notice to SRI as soon as practicable during the Policy Period or, if applicable, during the Extended Reporting Period, of any Claim or Injunction Claim made against the Insured.

(2) If during the Policy Period or, if applicable, during the Extended Reporting Period written notice of a Claim or Injunction Claim has been given to SRI pursuant to clause 8.e(1) above, then any Claim or Injunction Claim which is subsequently made against the Insured and reported to SRI alleging, arising out of, based upon or attributable to the facts alleged in the Claim or Injunction Claim of which such notice has been given, or alleging any Covered Infringement which is the same as or related to any Covered Infringement alleged in the Claim or Injunction Claim of which such notice has been given, shall be considered made at the time such notice was given.

(3) If during the Policy Period or, if applicable, during the Extended Reporting Period the Insured shall become aware of any circumstances which may reasonably be expected to give rise to a Claim or Injunction Claim being made against the Insured and shall give written notice to SRI of the circumstances and the reasons for anticipating such a Claim or Injunction Claim, with full particulars as to the dates, persons, companies, products and patents involved, then any Claim or Injunction Claim which is subsequently made against the Insured and reported to SRI alleging, arising out of, based upon or attributable to such circumstances or alleging any Covered Infringement which is the same as or related to any Covered Infringement alleged or contained in such circumstances, shall be considered made at the time such notice of circumstances was given.

e. ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION OF THE INSURED

The Insured shall cooperate fully with SRI in making accessible, on SRI’s request, all non-privileged information SRI may require for the purpose of assessing the Insured’s exposure hereunder.

The Insured shall periodically report to and update SRI as regards the general factual basis of the dispute underlying any Claim or Injunction Claim likely to involve this Policy, and on the status, progress, and settlement prospects of such Claim or Injunction Claim. At the request of SRI, the Insured shall provide a complete sample of the allegedly infringing product as well as a copy, to the extent permitted by law, of the allegedly infringed patent or any part thereof.

The Insured shall assist SRI in the prosecution of subrogation actions or proceedings and shall enforce, or assist SRI in enforcing, any right of contribution or indemnity the Insured has against any person or organization who may be liable to the Insured. The Insured shall, at the request of SRI, but at the Insured’s own and sole expense, attend hearings, trials and depositions and assist in securing and giving evidence and obtaining the attendance of witnesses in providing such assistance.

The Insured shall not, except at its own cost which shall not be reimbursed under this Policy, voluntarily make any settlement, payment, or assume any obligation to pay damages.

For the purpose of SRI’s participation in settlement proceedings, the Insured shall assist SRI in qualifying SRI’s attorneys and other representatives under any applicable protective orders or confidentiality agreements so that such attorneys or representatives may obtain access to documents, materials and proceedings relevant to the defense of any Claim or Injunction Claim, so that such SRI may participate in settlement proceedings concerning such Claim or Injunction Claim to the extent that SRI shall determine to be necessary.
f. OTHER INSURANCE; INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENTS

This Policy shall be excess over any other valid and collectible insurance or indemnification agreement between any third party and the Insured, whether such insurance or indemnification agreement is stated to be primary, pro-rata, contributory, excess, contingent or otherwise; however, this clause shall not apply to other insurance written specifically as excess over the Limits of Indemnity.

g. SUBROGATION

In the event of any payment under this Policy, SRI shall be subroged to all the Insured’s rights of recovery therefor or on any counterclaim the Insured brings against the claimant in connection with the defense of the Claim or Injunction Claim. The Insured shall execute and deliver instruments and papers and do whatever is necessary to secure such rights. The Insured shall do nothing to prejudice such rights.

h. DECLARATIONS AND REPRESENTATIONS

By acceptance of this Policy the Insured(s) agree(s) that the information in the Declarations and its application and underwriting submission and materials, as well as information provided on an ongoing basis, are its representations, that they shall be deemed material and that this Policy is issued in reliance upon the truth of such representations and that this Policy embodies all agreements existing between the Insured and SRI, or any of its agents, relating to this insurance.

i. CHANGES

Notice to any agent or knowledge possessed by any agent or by any other person shall not effect a waiver or a change in any part of this Policy or estop SRI from asserting any right under the terms of this Policy; nor shall the terms of this Policy be waived or changed, except by endorsement issued to form a part of this Policy.

j. CANCELLATION; RENEWAL

This Policy may be cancelled by the Named Insured at any time by surrender thereof to SRI or by mailing to SRI written notice stating when thereafter the cancellation shall be effective.

This Policy may be cancelled by SRI if the Named Insured has failed to pay a premium, Retention amount, Coinsurance Percentage amount, or any other amount, when due, by mailing a written notice of cancellation to the Named Insured at the address shown in this Policy stating when, not less than ten (10) days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective.

Unless this Policy (a) has been cancelled or (b) is renewed by written agreement of the Named Insured and SRI, the parties hereby agree that this Policy shall expire on the Expiration date shown in the Declarations. On renewal, SRI shall issue new Declarations indicating the new Inception and Expiration dates for the new Policy Period.

If the Named Insured cancels, earned premium shall be computed pro rata. Payment or tender of unearned premium by SRI shall not be a condition of cancellation, but such payment shall be made as soon as practicable after cancellation becomes effective. A proof of mailing of any notice of cancellation or shall be sufficient proof of notice; a delivery of such written notice either by the Named Insured or by SRI shall be equivalent to mailing.

k. TERMINATION OF COVERAGE AFTER CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

If during the Policy Period:

(1) the Named Insured shall consolidate with or merge into, or sell all its assets to, any other person or entity or group or persons and/or entities acting in concert; or

(2) any person or entity or group of persons and/or entities acting in concert shall acquire an amount of the outstanding securities representing more than 50% of the voting power for the election of directors of the Named Insured, or acquires the voting rights of such an amount of such securities;

(either of the above events herein referred to as the “Transaction”)

then, unless otherwise agreed in writing, there shall be no coverage afforded by any provision of this Policy (including but not limited to rights relating to the Extended Reporting Period) for any Patent Infringement occurring or alleged to occur after the effective date of the Transaction.
The Named Insured shall give SRI written notice of the Transaction as soon as practicable, but not later than thirty (30) days after the effective date of the Transactions.

If during the Policy Period a sale or transfer occurs transferring control of a division, Subsidiary Company or other part of the assets of the Insured, then coverage with respect to such sold or transferred entities/assets shall not apply to Claims or Injunction Claims arising from Patent Infringement or alleged Patent Infringement occurring subsequent to such Transaction.

l. SOLE AGENT

The Named Insured named in the Declarations shall act on behalf of all the Insureds with respect to giving and receiving notice of cancellation, payment of premiums and the receipt of any return premiums that may become due under this Policy, the acceptance of any endorsement issued to form a part of this Policy, and exercising or declining to exercise any right to an Extended Reporting Period.

m. ASSIGNMENT

Assignment of interest under this Policy shall not bind SRI unless and until its consent is endorsed hereon in writing.

n. ARBITRATION

Any controversy arising out of or relating to this Policy or its breach shall be settled by final and binding arbitration, from which there shall be no appeal, in accordance with the following.

Unless otherwise agreed, the United Kingdom Arbitration Act 1996 shall apply and the arbitration shall be held in London, England unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

Three arbitrators shall comprise the arbitration panel.

The majority of the three arbitrators shall issue a written award resolving the controversy before them within thirty (30) days of the time both parties are required to submit their case and related documentation, unless such time is extended by the consent of the parties. The panel shall make an award of compensatory monetary damages but not of punitive or exemplary or enhanced damages. Said award shall be final and binding upon both parties in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Each party shall bear the expense of its own arbitrator and shall jointly and equally bear with the other party the expense of the chairperson/umpire. The remaining costs of the arbitration proceedings shall be allocated by the panel.

o. ENFORCEMENT OF ARBITRATION AWARD

Subject to Section 8.n. of this Policy, entitled Arbitration, it is agreed that in the event of failure of SRI to pay an amount claimed to be due hereunder, SRI, at the request of the Insured, will submit to the jurisdiction of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in this condition constitutes or should be understood to constute a waiver of SRI’s rights to commence an action in any court of competent jurisdiction, to remove an action to another court of competent jurisdiction, or to seek a transfer of a case to another court as permitted by applicable law. It is further agreed that service of process in such suit may be made upon Legal and Claims Counsel, SR International Business Insurance Co. Ltd, P.O. Box 4288, CH-8022 Zurich, Switzerland, and that in any suit instituted against SRI upon this contract SRI will abide by the final decision of such court or of any appellate court in the event of any appeal.

Further, pursuant to any applicable statute which makes provision therefor, SRI hereby designates the Superintendent, Commissioner, or Director of Insurance, other officer specified for that purpose in the statute, or his or her successor or successors in office as is true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served any lawful process in any suit, or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of the Insured or any beneficiary hereunder arising out of this contract of insurance, and hereby designates the above named Counsel as the person to whom the said officer authorized to mail such process or a true copy thereof.
